GENESIS OF A SONG.

HOW "IN THE SWEET BY AND BY" CAME TO BE WRITTEN.

Its Author Tells an Interesting Story of Its Composition—Within an Hour after the Idea Came Four Gentlemen Were Singing the Song.

In Richmond, a little town of less than 1,000 inhabitants, almost on the southern boundary line of Illinois, lives the author of "In the Sweet By and By." He is a practicing physician and is under 60 years of age. The immortal hymn was written when he was only 31 and is the single song of his life.

During the civil war a wave of moral elevation and intellectual activity swept over the country. In this grand awakening of the conscience there was a flood of music—martial, religious, domestic. George P. Root and Stephen J. Foster were both writing songs that lived, and Sunday school hymns passed out of the drizzling period into one of elevated simplicity.

Just at this time Samuel Fillmore Bennett was graduated from Ann Arbor, Mich., and began a newspaper career at Elkhorn, Wis., on The Independent. J. P. Webster, the musical composer, was living in the same town, and it was only a few months before the editor and the musician were collaborating. The war intervened, and Lieutenant Bennett of the Twelfth Wisconsin volunteers returned to Elkhorn to open a drug store and resume his writing. He and Mrs. Webster began in 1867 to work on a Sunday school song-book, called "The Signet Ring," which was afterward published.

This period of his life is the most precious of all his experiences to Dr. Bennett. Not long ago he told the whole story to an interested group of listeners, his eyes filling with tears as he vindicated his friend from calumnies:

"Currency has been given to the shameful story that Mr. Webster was drunk when he wrote the music, and another account has it that we were both drunk. I am thankful to do justice to one of the noblest men that ever lived—a fine, sensitive soul, with the true artistic feeling. Again, it has been said that we were both infidels, and the song the result of a carouse. As to my religion, that is my own affair, but the hope and longing of every immortal soul as expressed in that song were the faith of both of us. To both creation would have seemed a farce if infinite love and immortality had not overshadowed us and promised a life of bliss beyond the grave.

"Mr. Webster, like many musicians, was of an exceedingly nervous and sensitive nature, and subject to fits of depression. I knew his peculiarities well, and when I found him given up to blue devils, I just gave him a cheerful song to work on. One morning he came into the store and walked to the stove without speaking.

"What's up now, Webster? I asked.

"It's no matter. It will be all right by and by."

"The idea of the hymn came to me then a flash of confidence—"The Sweet By and By." Everything will be all right then. Why wouldn't that make a good hymn?"

"Maybe it would," he replied gleefully. Turning to the desk, I wrote it rapidly as I could. In less than half an hour, I think, the song as it stands today was written. Here it is:

"There's a hand that is faster than day, And by faith we can see it star, For the Father waits over the way To prepare us a dwelling place there.

CHORUS.

"In the sweet by and by

We shall meet on that beautiful shore—

In the sweet by and by

We shall meet on that beautiful shore.

"We shall sing on that beautiful shore

The melodious songs of the blest, And our guides shall sorrow no more—

Not a sigh for the blessing of rest.

"To our beautiful Father above

We will offer the tribute of praise: For the glorious gift of his love

And the blessings that hallow our days.

"In the meantime two friends, N. H. Carswell and S. E. Bright, had come in. I handed the verses to Mr. Webster, a little tremulous with emotion. As he read it his eyes kindled. Stepping to the desk, he began to jot down the notes. He picked up his violin and tried them. In ten minutes we four gentlemen were singing the song. Mr. B. E. Crosby came in, and with tears in his eyes said, 'Gentlemen, that hymn is immortal.' We were all excited, elated. Within two weeks the children of the town were singing it on the streets.

"In 1868 'The Signet Ring' was published, the published distributing circulars to advertise it and on the sheets was 'The Sweet By and By.' On the strength of that one song nearly 350,000 copies of the book were sold. The song was afterward brought out in sheet music, and it has been translated into a number of foreign languages.

"Webster, Crosby and Carswell are all dead. S. E. Bright of Fort Atkinson, Wis., and myself are the only living witnesses to the origin of the song."—Louisville Post.

THE sick man knocking at the door of health gets in if he knocks the right way, and stays out if he doesn't. There are thousands of ways of getting sick. There is only one way to get well. Do whatever you will, if you do not put your digestion in good order, and make your blood rich and pure, you will not get well. Rich, pure blood is the only thing that can bring perfect health. A large part of all the diseases that afflict mankind are traceable directly to impurities in the blood, and can be cured by eliminating these impurities. That most dreadful of all diseases, consumption, is a disease of the blood. The disease shows in the lungs because of some inherited or acquired weakness there. If the blood were always pure and without germs, the disease would never develop and in time weakness itself would be overcome. Germs and impurities in the blood float along through the body until they find a weak spot for lodgment. They stick there and develop and people call the disease by the name of the organ afflicted. As a matter of fact, the disease is always a disease of the blood, and if the blood be purified, the disease will be cured. That is a perfectly natural, rational conclusion, endorsed both by common sense and the highest medical authority. It is in accordance with these facts that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery works. The first thing it does is to put the whole digestive system into perfect order. It stimulates the appetite, excites the copious secretion of the digestive fluids and promotes assimilation. It searches out disease germs wherever they may be, kills them and forces them out of the system. The 'Golden Medical Discovery' has been used with unvarying success for over 30 years.

If you care to know more about it, and more about your own body, send 21 one-cent stamps to cover cost of mailing only, and you will receive absolutely free a copy of Dr. Pierce's 100 page book, Common Sense Medical Adviser. PATRONIZE LOCAL INDUSTRIES.

"Patronize local industries and keep your money at home," are some of the methods suggested by the Ogden Standard for building up a State. The most striking illustration of the paralyzing effect of a condition which induces the residents of a State to spend their money abroad is found in the State of Nevada. Her mines, says the Standard, have produced over $600,000,000 in gold and silver; her ranges have supplied the Pacific Coast with beef, and materially added to the wool product of the nation; her marshes have yielded great quantities of borax, salt and soda; yet the State is dependent upon the outside world for everything that her people use and all that her people wear. The millions from her mines, ranges and marshes have been used to beautify other homes and other lands, and the greater part of the State is still a desert.

Within the boundaries of Nevada, says the Standard, are 23,000,000 acres of land suitable for irrigation and 35,000,000 acres of the best grazing land in the world; the Humboldt river flows 300 miles through the central part of this vast domain and is continuous to millions of acres of fertile soil but, due to its location, it is not a natural waterway. The Sierras are clothed in a dense forest of stately pines; yet with all this, her population has never exceeded 65,000 and is now only 45,000, including Chinese and Indians. Had one-tenth of the wealth produced been retained at home, which home industries could have accomplished, the assessed value of the State would not now be less than $40,000,000 nor the population less than that of Salt Lake City.

What the Standard says of Nevada is too true. It is a fact, deplorable, but nevertheless true, that the millions produced by the Nevada mines have been invested outside the State. The fashion has been for those who made money in mining, cattle raising, wool-growing or any other industry in Nevada to take that money out of the State for investment. Only one wealthy man came to Nevada to help develop its resources and he incurred the deadly enmity of a coterie of politicians by doing so. While the State produces millions of pounds of wool and thousands of hides annually, there is not a woolen factory nor a tannery in Nevada, and this too in the face of the fact that there is general complaint of the high transportation charges for wool, hides and other commodities out of the State and for manufactured products into the State.

Our people, or at least a considerable number of them, seem to prefer imported articles. They will buy salt with the Liverpool or some foreign brand upon it, in preference to the home product, though the latter is chemically pure. They buy flour made in California, though the home product is equally as good, and they export live hogs to San Francisco and import bacon and hams from St. Louis or Chicago, and yet complain of exorbitant transportation rates. Nevada must change these customs or the people will continue to send large sums of money abroad every year for much that they eat and all that they wear. Horace Greeley said that the way to give employment to the masses was to let all the raw material that was offered come into the country free, manufacture it, and when the home demand was supplied sell the surplus to the nations of whom the raw material was purchased. If that was good for the country in Mr. Greeley's time it is good for the country to-day, and Nevada should try it.

THE KENTUCKY LEGISLATURE.

The usefulness of the Kentucky Legislature, if it ever had any except to show the public that the gold men of the old parties will unite at any time to prevent the election of a silver man, seems to be at an end for this session. The Senate has a Democratic majority, and the House a Republican majority, and both had an equal number of votes in joint convention. The House attempted to give the Republicans an advantage by unseating a Democrat, though the person to whom they proposed to give the seat did not want it. The Senate then undertook to checkmate the Republican move in the House by unseating two Republicans. This engendered feelings which may result in bloodshed unless it is decided not to elect a Senator at this session of the Legislature. Yesterday the Capitol at Frankfort resembled an army barracks more than a place for enacting laws. The police had possession of the building and one-half the members refused to ballot for United States Senator, and those who did vote say that unless the Speaker changes his decision no Senator shall be elected at this session of the Legislature.

THE ROENTGEN RAY.

Professor Roentgen of Berlin has issued a pamphlet in which he explains the latest developments of the X rays. One of the most important applications of the rays has been made surgically. By placing a subject to be examined before a screen faced with a mixture of barium, platinum and cyanium, and allowing the rays from the tube enclosed in a dark cloth to traverse the body, the impression can be seen by the eye on the screen which is rendered fluorescent where the ray falls uninter-uptedly. The surgeon is consequently enabled to view the subject freely before the screen and examine the interior of the body for foreign substances, hurtful growths or distorted bones. In some of the cities which have been cursed with corrupt rings it is suggested that the X ray be turned upon every candidate for Supervisor or Alderman so that it can be ascertained as near as may be what he would do if elected. This system will probably come into general use, and political parties, as an evidence of reform, will nominate no person for office whose anatomy has not been subjected to the X ray test and pronounced proof against corruption.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Sherman says Weyler is a Butcher. WASHINGTON, March 12.—In the Senate Sherman discussed at length the character of the resolutions, and the conditions existing in Cuba. It was not best, he said, to send joint resolutions to the President, as that would compel him to act in ten days, and this was not judicious. He had confidence in the President. There were political differences between them, but, he added, "No one doubts his courage. No one doubts his fidelity to the flag of our country." Sherman referred to General Weyler as a butcher, and said that the conditions of Cuba were flagrant.

"If war does not exist in Cuba," he asked, "where, outside of hell, does it exist?" Speaking of the demand for facts, he said that Senator Lodge had obtained from Secretary Olney ample facts to justify the resolutions, but for obvious reasons these could not be made public.

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

The painter's strike in San Francisco has not yet been settled and the men seem to have the best of it.

Nothing has yet been heard of the steamship Rio de Janeiro, which left San Francisco for Yokohama thirty-six days ago.

Dr. Arthur Denesto, convicted of killing his wife and baby at St. Louis, Missouri, has been sentenced to be hanged April 22d.

El. G. Ward, a brakeman on the Santa Fe road, killed his wife and then committed suicide at Denver yesterday; cause, jealousy.

The House Committee on Territories has decided to recommend the passage of a bill providing for a Territorial form of government for Alaska.

The President is again duck hunting on the Potomac. The light-house tender Maple took the Presidential hunting party to Quantico, Virginia.

No settlement on the Venezuelan question has yet been reached, though reports from Washington indicate that it will be disposed of satisfactorily.

Charles Wilson escaped from Folsom prison yesterday. He had been sent up from San Francisco for burglary. His term would expire next September.

The worst snow storm of the season visited Western Pennsylvania and New York yesterday. It snowed from twelve to twenty inches and the temperature fell twenty degrees.

The British war office has no information of any English militia officers having offered their services to Spain in the event of war between that country and the United States.

A fire broke out in the four story building occupied by the Pope Manufacturing Company in Boston yesterday and for a while threatened the building occupied by the Youth's Companion.

Spanish students continue to trail the Stars and Stripes in the dust, and yesterday at Madrid they burned the American flag and cheered for Spain. The authorities seem to be unable to prevent the outrages, in fact several policemen have been injured while trying to do so.

Before the House Committee on Pacific Railroads yesterday C. P. Huntington asserted that all the people of California favored a funding bill except a few hundred politicians who had grievances because the railroad went out of politics, and seven-eighths of the California papers were with him.

The capital of Kentucky is now under police rule and trouble is imminent. The ballot for Senator yesterday resulted in 52 for Blackburn, 12 for Carlisle and 1 for Backner, the Republicans refusing to vote. The Speaker decided that it required 70 members to make a quorum and it is said that under this ruling there will be no Senator elected at this session of the Legislature.

True Blue in Every Particular.

F. C. Dickinson will leave for his Red Rock ranch this morning. He has purchased a large lot of fruit trees and says he is going to plant them and if they don't do him any good his children will receive the benefit. He says he has the finest storage reservoir in the country and is going to stock it with fish and that his Reno friends can come out and go swimming or fish or both, just as they please, and they will always find his hatch string on the outside of the door.

W. A. Moore, Baker & Hamilton's local agent, received a consignment of wheels yesterday. Among the lot was a Road King and a Road Queen, the latter is one of, if not the prettiest wheel that was ever in the town. For $75 it is a bargain.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gundermar, of Diamonddale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store. Regular size, 50 cts. and $1.

Four Big Successes.

Having the needed merits to more than make good all the advertising claimed for them, the following four remedies have reached a phenomenal sale: Dr. King's New Discovery, for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, each bottle guaranteed—Electric Bitters, the great remedy for Liver, Stomach and Kidneys, Backlen's Arnica Salve, the best in the world, and Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are a perfect pill. All these remedies are guaranteed to do just what is claimed for them, and the dealer whose name is attached herewith will be glad to tell you more of them. Sold at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

A New Store.

W. C. Lloyd, late of Watsonville, Cal., has concluded to locate in Reno and will open a cigar and tobacco store next to the jewelry store of R. Herz. Mr. Lloyd proposes to keep a special line of first-class goods, also an assortment of smokers' articles, etc. He is now fitting up his store and will probably open the first of the coming week. He is a pleasant gentleman and will no doubt soon make friends.

The partnership heretofore existing between Riter and Richardson has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Richardson retiring from the business. See notice.

DIED.

TREWICK.—In Winnemucca, March 9, 1896, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Trewick.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, Syrup of Figs manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

THE PARTNERSHIP HERETOFORE existing between Riter and Richardson, engaged in the saloon business at the Elite Saloon, Reno, Nevada, has this day been dissolved by mutual consent. B. R. Richardson retiring, and the business to be conducted hereafter by Henry Riter, who will collect all accounts due the late firm and pay all its indebtedness. H. RITER. B. R. RICHARDSON. REV. ZEPHANIAH MEEK, D. D.

Eminent Methodist Divine Cured of Nerve Trouble by Paine's Celery Compound.

Rev. Zephaniah Meek, D. D., is a household name all over the South. Since 1867 he has owned and edited the "Central Methodist," the leading paper of the Methodist Episcopal church in the South. He represented his State at the General Conference.

He was one of the Kentucky Commissioners at the Chicago Columbian Exposition. During his ministry in the South he has built and dedicated five chapels. He writes from Catlettsburg, Ky., where his home is, as follows:

"I have used several bottles of Paine's Celery Compound for nervous trouble, resulting from overwork, and with immediate effect, as well as permanent benefit. It is the best nerve tonic that I have ever tried. It has also been used in my family with great benefit."

Tired-out, half-sick men and women need something more than a mere rest. They need a positive, unmistakable nerve food; they must have a reserve of nerve-force to draw from, before their heads will cease to ache and their nerves cease to tremble with neuralgia.

It is estimated that there are over ten million nerve fibers in the body. So long as these minute tissues are kept fully nourished, one lives in blissful ignorance of any such thing as neuralgia, headaches or even a nervous system, but let one become "run-down" and the nutriment of the body get low, and every one of these myriad fibers becomes a "live wire" within the flesh. Headaches, neuralgia, rheumatism, and other forms of nervousness and debility result directly from the famished nervous system. Paine's Celery Compound is able to correct this faulty condition. It builds up the nervous system and sustains it. The brain at once feels the strengthening effects of the superb nutriment. There are thousands of men and women to-day who

THE TRIAL OF JOHN T. JONES—TENTH DAY.

The Prosecution Closes To-Morrow—Witnesses Coming—Johnny Jones' Bonanza.

Correspondence of the JOURNAL.

CARSON CITY, March 12, 1896.

T. R. Hofer, recalled—I have prepared a footing or statement of Jones' account with Wells, Fargo & Co., and the Bullion and Exchange Bank, Carson, from July 17, 1891, when he commenced to March 28, 1895, when he quit. The amount he paid for stocks during that time was $11,227 84. Sales of stock during the period $1,272 50. At the close, considering drafts at times, Jones had to his credit and received $21 in coin and 200 shares Consolidated Virginia stock.

G. R. Crandall—This statement prepared by me shows the summary of accounts deposited by Jones with Wells, Fargo & Co. between January, 1891, and January, 1896, when he quit is $28,702 30. The largest single deposits were $3,000 in January, 1894, and $3,000 on September 20, 1895. The largest balance in his favor at one time was $4,472 81, January 31, 1894. In July of that year he deposited $760 and in September $2,000. His was simply a running bank account, having nothing whatever to do with stocks so far as Wells, Fargo & Co. in San Francisco was concerned, depositing and drafting and drawing out at last with but a small amount in his favor.

George McLaughlin—Explained the duties and responsibilities of the pressman in the coinage department of the mint. Responsible especially for the execution of the impressions on the coin the figures, date, liberty face, laurel leaves, motto, mint marks. Everything must be absolutely perfect and no discrepancies allowed.

General Clark—You were directed yesterday to experiment with a bar of the spurious Bodio melt.

I did so, in conjunction with Phil Doyle. We took one of the shoe bars of that melt over to the mint, heated it red hot, stamped it with the same figures certified to as being evidently the same as used and found now on the melt. Then we placed it in the vault to cool off, and at 8 o'clock this morning we stamped it cold with the same figures and stamps. The cold stamping took a little more force and made a clearer cut and brighter impression than that done warm. (Shown to the jury.) The color of this bar treated is more of a white, creamy cast much lighter than the other bars of the melt, owing to the heat destroying the dark oxidation of the outside, and the mint atmosphere. I made a bit of a blunder in stamping one figure 4 upside down, as can be seen. Have seen sacs of silver coin brought out, which had turned so black from oxidation that it had to be cleaned before public issue.

I am positive the number 134 was stamped on the bars of the melt while they were hot, and 161 on the other side when they were cold.

T. R. Hofer, recalled—I find that the amount of Jones' deposits from July 6, 1891, to December 11, 1895, amounted to $34,244 85, and his checks $34,641 75. If there had been a deficiency of weight in the bullion when I was Superintendent of the mint I feel sure we would have detected it. I don't think this spurious melt was among the bullion. With Wells-Fargo and the bank here Jones was dealing in stocks and he drew on San Francisco to deposit and use here.

George McLaughlin, recalled, showed to the jury a slight defect or breakage in the figure four, which might cut an important figure in determining the time when the melt was made.

Hirsch Harris, recalled—The dies or stamps in the deposit melting room are kept stuck up in a rack or two pieces of wood with holes for them, fastened to the wall of the room. (The two pieces of each rack were shown to the jury.) We kept no account of the results by the nitric process, and depended on the annual clean-up at the end of the fiscal years, when we cleaned up all and the best we could. When entries were made in the book called and Jones made the entries. All the fine silver bars I had anything to do with are marked H. I thought the nitric process would prove a success, but it did not and we dropped it very shortly. Had no regulations for working after hour. Never saw Jones working after hours at any time.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

This was very short—only about half an hour. T. R. Hofer, recalled, said that the 200 shares of Con Virginia stock was included in the settlement statement filed by the prosecution.

George Hofer, stockholder and President of the San Francisco Stock Exchange testified: Defendant called at my office in San Francisco after his indictment and asked if I had any record of stock transactions between himself and Captain John Kelly. We examined the books together and found none. He said his attorney, Mr. Coffin, would visit me later on, which he did.

Captain Kelly died February 13, 1890, from severe hemorrhage of the stomach. From the time he was taken ill he did no business for himself, I managing a portion for him.

Notes—This bar of settlement, melt, No. 211, which came into the mint December 8, 1892, fits this mould exactly and was evidently cast in it.

General Clarke here announced that the prosecution had two more witnesses to examine, one of whom, Chris Zabriskie, had not arrived as expected, but would be here to-morrow. By consent of court and counsel, it being now 2 o'clock p. m., court adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

THE STATE LINK TOWN.

Matters and Things of More or Less Importance at Verdi.

EDITOR JOURNAL—While sojourning in Verdi I combine pleasure with business by giving you a few current items regarding this town, as being quite a substantial part of Washoe county.

Success, which has been prevailing to some extent during the past few months, is abating, owing considerably to the skill of the Drs. Phillips. Pneumonia, to which poor Sam Mitchell succumbed, was contracted by him in Reno. His untimely death spread a deep gloom over this community.

O. Lonkey's box factory, after a short cessation, is once more in full blast.

The town boasts of two new dwelling houses, occupied by Wm. Jackson and Frank Decarie respectively.

Dr. Hamilton, the dentist, who not long ago came to Verdi to recuperate his somewhat shattered health, has not only completely recovered but has found a business so profitable that he concluded to stay. He is building a magnificent residence on main street of the most modern design.

Mr. Fox of Susanville purchased Mrs. Nash's ranch, which adjoins Harry Husken's property.

Miss Ada Lippincott of Oakland is visiting her cousin, Mrs. W. A. Cobb.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Looker are enjoying a recreation trip to the Bay, and will not return before another week.

A new sawmill in Dog Valley, five miles distant from Verdi, erected and owned by Labaty & Hall, will be open for business in the early part of June. Ed. Labaty, one of the proprietors, says that he has already received a good many orders.

Southern Pacific Agent C. R. Carter is authority for the statement that shipments during the year 1895, both from and to Verdi, show a considerable improvement over the preceding year, the growing lumber industry and the increased demand for fruit boxes being the principal causes.

Judge Soulehereau is a happy man; notwithstanding his ulcerative office he rests contented with his title of Judge.

A few words about Verdi's notorious town well. Not many years ago a few timid citizens had two analyses of its water made by two different parties, whose names are not relevant. The substance of the latter's combined opinion was that whoever chose to continue the use of that polluted and poisonous water would sooner or later find him or herself a corpse.

Immediately every disease from the smallest down to a slight pain below the belt, which had occurred before and since, was attributed to the poor well. No doubt the learned analysts know their business, and to account for the non-occurrence of deaths of any of the water consumers, the latter must either be blessed with impervious systems or ironed stomachs, or else Bull's antimalarial whisky must have neutralized the supposed death-dealing ingredients.

Dan Bull, alias "Baby" Bull, who has been connected with N. J. Foxwell for the last quarter of a century, uses daily about six bucketsful. Eli LaChapelle and L. Goyette of the Verdi Hotel also consume a great quantity of that water. These four gentlemen have not only refused to die, but, on the contrary, they have continued to thrive, so that their present combined weight is fully a good half a ton.

On the other hand, of those who discontinued the use of the well water I only mention Billy Cobb as an illustration, who has grown neither fatter nor taller, but then the weary cares of his present office as County Commissioner may have had something to do with that fact as far as he is concerned.

OSCAR HENDERSON.

Verdi, Nev., March 12, 1896.

The Chicago Lady Quartette.

A large audience greeted this combination at the Opera House last night. The entertainment was a pleasing change from the usual concert style. The quartette of lady singers appeared on the stage in becoming costumes, and in rendering their solos and quartettes at once captured the audience. Their selections were taken mainly from old ballads and such songs as the ordinary person could understand and appreciate.

Miss Nettie M. Jackson, the impersonator, gave some splendid readings that were highly entertaining as well as amusing.

Altogether the Chicago Lady Quartette is immense, besides they are Western girls and have the snap and force of character that all Western girls have, and in comparison with the girls of the East the latter are not "thick." Everyone should hear the Chicago Quartette.

Louis Boardman took the train last evening for San Francisco.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Items of Interest From Here, There and Everywhere.

Mrs. J. R. Williamson of Austin is in Enreka organizing an Equal Suffrage League.

A special trainload of cattle was shipped from Winnemucca night before last by Hardin & Sons and Grant Pyle.

The Renville says T. Webber and John Sibbald, cattle buyers, purchased 53 head of beef steers from Fred Steiner and about 80 head from Geo. West last week. The cattle were delivered in Battle Mountain to-day. The price paid, so we are informed, was $30 per head.

A prominent Republican said to the Independent man to-day that he was losing a good deal of sleep trying to solve the mystery of that $80,000 in brand new silver half-dollars being in the State Treasury. Not being able to solve the riddle, the reporter kindly referred the gentleman to ex-Treasurer Richards.

Acting School Superintendent W. N. Granger writes to the Belmont Courier as follows: "It is not so generally known as it should be that the Department of the Interior of the United States Government allows to each school district $10 for each Indian of the full blood who attends the public schools three months, and for each three months. A knowledge of this might greatly help some of the weaker school districts."

The Silver State says it is no wonder that sheep values are low considering the great numbers that have been put upon the market this year. In January 385,000 were received at the four western markets, which were followed in February by 377,000, making the largest supply ever on sale at the four markets in the first two months of the year. January receipts were exceeded in January 1894, but last month the supply was the largest ever had in February.

WHEN LOVELOCE CAME TO WOO.

The feet of time make fast their pace,
And we, like players in a play,
Stand up and down our little space
And set our parts as best we may.
Alas! Alack and well a day!
The stage is light in sadder hue,
Where once the brightly veiled maid away,
When Richard Lovelace came to woo.

And such we marvel as we trace
The fads and follies passed away,
While pomp of power and pride of place
Trop down the years in grand array.
In court and camp, in fete and frap,
Pleasure and pleasure, mirth and true,
Each were the gallants, bold and gay,
When Richard Lovelace came to woo.

THE MEN WHO BUY NOT.

Why Newsdealers Sometimes Slip Rubber Bands Around Their Magazines.

The man who gets up early in the morning so he can have a look at his neighbor's paper before the rightful owner has a chance to take it in from his doorstep does not stand very high in the estimation of the newsdealer. This is because he spoils trade.

There is another man, however, who is even more cordially detested by the vendor of periodicals. He is the fellow who never buys anything, but has the habit of dipping into the weekly papers and magazines. The keeper of a newsstand makes a tempting display of his stock, for he knows that a strong picture or even a pretty cover often brings him a stray customer, but he expects the mere looker-on to be content with this much, and he is likely to frown upon the man who resorts to all kinds of schemes in order to get a peep at the inside pages.

The stands in the ferry houses and railway stations suffer the most from these peeping cranks, for there is nothing else to attract their attention while they are waiting for a boat or a train. They run through the leaves of the latest books and magazines and have been known to draw the racks out of papers nailed up against the stand so that they could see what was on the inside of the sheet. But it is not what they see and read for nothing that worries the newsdealer. He would be willing to put up with that if they did not ruin his stock. Indeed, he would much rather have a man take up a magazine and carefully examine every page than to have him grab it by the corner and head up all the leaves in a hasty attempt to see the pictures. He would also rather have you ask him to have him show his stock than to have you shove his stock in front of him with a trying to see the last of the page that is hidden by a pile of other papers.

No great is this business that the newsdealers had to adopt schemes to their own protection. The most successful, so far as preventing the havoc from being done, consists of placing a rubber band around the top and bottom of a magazine and using it on the top of each pile.—New York World.

Travels of Miss Mary Green.
"Miss Mary Green" is a real girl who appeared one day late last fall in the postoffice of White River, Mass. On her dress was fastened a slip of paper which read: "The climate of New England is too severe for this child; please pass her to the Pacific coast for the winter." Some friendly clerk put a stamp on her dress and sent her to Montana. From there she went to California, then to British Columbia and from there to Ottawa. Each postoffice clerk seems to have enjoyed her society as long as he pleased, then pasted a stamp to her gown and sent her on.

At Denver she evidently attended a banquet of the mailing clerks and had some new traveling garments given her. Her dress is said to be covered over with postage stamps from various offices in the United States, and around her neck are tied several "poems" written in her honor. She also wears newspaper badges from many different states, showing the honor with which she was received at the various literary banquets which she attended. From Ottawa she brought back a tag which proved to be a pass to the gallery of the house of commons.—

'A Cabby's Tip.
A sensitive cab horse and a four wheeler drew up in front of a theater the other night, and a portly old gentleman alighted.
Having handed the cabby his strictly legal fare, he turned round to make his way into the building.
"Excuse me, sir," said the weather beaten cabby, "but would yer oblige me by not passing in front of the old boss? If he sees what weight he's pulled for a tub, he'll simply drop down dead."—Pearson's Weekly.

Birthplace of George III.
The house in which George III was born (as stated in Mr. Daseut's comprehensive history of St. James square) is still standing, at the back of Norfolk House, in St. James square, parallel with the front mansion. It is a dwarf Hamovarian building, almost of the cottage type, and has been used for many years as a servants' and stable house. What is now the stable yard was formerly a garden which faced the square.
